

AIME Certification Form

MAA AMC
American Mathematics Competitions

Please complete return with answer sheets.

The AIME must be administered by a Competition Manager, who is usually a teacher or coach and is an adult unrelated to any of the participants. Please send all AIME answer sheets from your institution together. The Competition Manager and the institution's principal, official, or person with comparable title must sign this form.

Certification by the Competition Manager

I certify that the following statements are true and that, if there are any exceptions, I have checked the box on the second page and have listed the name(s) of the participant(s). I understand that the absence of either my signature or the signature of the principal, official, or person with a comparable title from this form may result in DISQUALIFICATION of all scores from our institution.

1. I accept the rules and procedures described on this page and in the Invitational Competitions Teacher's Manual, and accept that failure to follow these rules and procedures may result in disqualification of all scores from our institution.
2. The competition was held on Tuesday, February 8, 2022 for the AIME I, or Wednesday, February 16, 2022 for the AIME II. For time zones outside the continental United States, the competition must start after 8 AM EST (UTC -5) on official competitions dates.
3. Only students who received qualifying scores on AMC 10 or AMC 12 were allowed to take the AIME
4. The participants were continuously monitored during the competition.
5. Participants had exactly 3 hours of working time. (See Invitational Competitions Teacher's Manual for the policy on students with accommodation plans).
6. No aids were permitted other than scratch paper, ruler, compass, and eraser. Prohibited materials include calculators, smartwatches, phones, computing devices, protractors, and graph paper.
7. No student was permitted to proctor or score the competition.
8. After the administration of the printed competition, the answer sheets were kept secure and no changes were made to the answers.
9. I have followed all the rules as stated in the Invitational Competitions Teacher's Manual.
