We present some alternate types of error bounds for the Midpoint, Trapezoid, Simpson, and Corrected Trapezoid Rules. These are more elementary than standard error bounds, which require polynomial interpolation and/or Taylor’s theorem. And, they require less regularity of the function being used. (Received October 04, 2004)