We will discuss a new proof of a well-known theorem on the closure ordering of nilpotent orbits in the Lie algebra of an algebraic group of Type A. The original proof by Gerstenhaber uses the theory of $\mathfrak{sl}_2$ triples, while this new proof uses only very elementary linear algebra. The motivation for studying this closure ordering will also be discussed. (Received September 25, 2006)